PURPOSE

This scholarship is established for the purpose of promoting the education of water resource professionals in order to help meet the goals of the Arizona Floodplain Management Association (AFMA).

CRITERIA

1. Student must major in one of the following areas of study:
 - Civil Engineering (with water resources emphasis),
 - Water Resources including surface water hydrology and hydraulics,
 - Watershed Management,
 - Agricultural Engineering,
 - Geomorphology, or
 - Enrolled in a floodplain management accredited program approved by the AFMA Board of Directors
2. Undergraduates:
 - Applicant must be a minimum 3rd year (junior) student and within 40 credit hours of graduation.
 - Applicant must show a minimum of 6-credit hours in one of the fields of study listed above by the end of the two semesters for which the scholarship applies. The 6-hours can either be passed in previous semesters or 3-hours signed up for in the semester for which the scholarship will first apply, and 3-hours in the following semester.
3. Graduates: Must be enrolled in a masters program with emphasis in one of the fields listed above.
4. Preference will be given to AFMA members and AFMA student members. Applicants are encouraged to visit the AFMA WEB site at www.azfma.org for more information about AFMA.
5. The applicant must provide a two page written statement as described under the Additional Materials section.
6. Applicant must submit at least two letters of recommendation from the applicant's professors in the water resources field, student advisor, or from water resources professionals in the community.
7. Applicant must maintain full-time student status for the period that the scholarship applies.
8. Applicant must maintain a 3.0 minimum grade point average, and provide a copy of applicant's university transcripts.
9. Applicant must be a US citizen or a permanent resident of the US.
10. Preference may be given to students who meet all the above criteria and demonstrate a financial need by incorporating economic circumstances into their written statement. Final determination of need will be decided by the AFMA. All information submitted in this regard will be treated as confidential, used only for scholarship application evaluation, and seen only by the review committee.
