This class has the following specific educational goals. By the end of the course, the student should have a basic understanding of:

- Chemical composition of waters in the environment
- Water quality standards and regulations
- How to measure water quality parameters
- Natural and anthropogenic (human-made) sources of contamination
- Major water quality problems world-wide with a focus on current events